Board Game
All you need is a dice and a tube of Rowntree’s Fruit Gums for the Fruit Gums Game!

How to Play...

1. Any number from two to five can play.
2. Take a tube of Rowntree’s Fruit Gums and place the gums among the players to enjoy while the game is being played. Do not use the actual gums in the game. They are intended to be used during manufacture only.
3. To start the game, each player throws the dice on the grimace side and with the highest number of spots.
4. Each player chooses a number which is moved forward the number of spaces shown by the dice.
5. When a player’s movement lands on his own fruit—a take an extra turn.

NOTE: If you are not forward or backward by landing on an A6, please or move, and by doing

Land on a Take and up you go.
But back on your knees for a Girl’s Mind and you’re swallowed to backhead.

Take only a good luck in all you pay for a tube of Rowntree’s Fruit Gums and you get a bonus! Move on to square 61.

Land on 4 No Smoking! and you miss a turn. Enjoy a Rowntree’s Fruit Gums while you wait.

First person to come on the 12 Gums Carton wins. Exact number must be thrown for win, if a greater number is thrown you must move back on after landing on the winning number. If you are on square 80 and you throw a five, you move forward to the Gums Carton, then back to square 81.

On land, you can have fruit, you do add it these indicators get an extra throw.

Print this out onto A3 card, or print onto A3 paper and paste onto card. Fruit gums make excellent markers, but so do tiddlywinks.
